EXPLORE JEWELRY FABRICATION AT ONE OF WISCONSIN'S FINEST METALSMITHING STUDIOS. Terri McCarthy Studios is located along the Milwaukee River in the Historic Grafton Mill in downtown Grafton, WI. Work at your own pace with individual instruction. Learn to solder, fabricate, bezel, and experiment with a variety of tools and techniques to create your own unique style of jewelry. Beginning, intermediate and advanced students are welcome.

WHAT TO EXPECT

The open studio classes have a wide variety of tools available for shared use. They include: rolling mill, hydraulic press, large vises, jump ring mandrels, metal forms and stakes, disk cutters, hammers, ring mandrels, draw plates, files, pliers, reference books, flex shafts, buffing machines, drill press, small kiln, and Smith torches. Students will supply their own materials.

WHO SHOULD TAKE CLASSES?

Adults who have an interest in fabricating jewelry or small metal objects. Learn to solder and cold connect your work.

*Additional master workshops are offered in enameling, etching, advanced metals, and casting.
